

AUSTRALIAN LITERACY EDUCATORS' ASSOCIATION

ALEA Riverina Murray is pleased to present a workshop for secondary teacher

WHAT DOES LITERACY LOOK LIKE IN THE SECONDARY CURRICULUM?

IMPLICATIONS FOR LEARNING & TEACHING

With  Paul Grover,
Lecturer in Education at Charles
Sturt University

21st November

4:30 - 6pm

Riverina Anglican College,
WAGGA WAGGA

Register online

<https://www.alea.edu.au/events/event/what-does-literacy-look-like-in-the-secondary-curriculum-2>

Or contact Natalie
nthompson@csu.edu.au
02 6051 9236

ALEA Members $10

Non-members $20

Completing What does literacy look like in the secondary curriculum? Implications for learning and teaching will contribute 1.5 hours of NSW Education Standards Authority (NESA) Registered PD addressing Standards 2.5.2 from the Australian Professional Standards for Teachers towards maintaining Proficient Teacher Accreditation in NSW.