Dear Juanita,

I am pleased to advise that your application for a Writing-Up Award has been successful.

The amount of the award is $10,000 which will be paid pro-rata on a fortnightly basis over a 12 week period into your nominated Australian bank account.

You are reminded that the conditions of the Award are:

- The Award must be taken up within three weeks of the date of this letter.
- This Award may not be held concurrently with another Award offering similar benefits.
- A student to whom an Award is made cannot undertake either full time or substantial part time employment during the term of the Award (i.e. not more than 20 hours per week during the hours of 9.00am – 5.00pm Monday to Friday).
- You are required to submit a final report to the Research Office at the completion of the award period, including copies of publications.
- Charles Sturt University should be noted as your affiliation or joint affiliation and I request that you acknowledge this scheme in the publications that are supported by it. You are also required to add your publications arising from this scheme to the Charles Sturt University Research Output repository <http://www.csu.edu.au/research/performance/cro/submit>. Further, all publications should comply with the CSU Research Authorship Policy ensuring all contributions are appropriately recognised and authorship criteria met (<https://policy.csu.edu.au/view.current.php?id=00272>).

Please notify the Research Office (research@csu.edu.au) of your intention to accept this Award as soon as possible and advise the date from which you would like it to commence.

Please accept my congratulations on your Award and my best wishes for the success of your writing endeavours.

Yours sincerely,

Professor Mary Kelly
Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Research, Development and Industry)
