

Promoting excellence in higher education

Australian Learning and Teaching Council
Promoting excellence in higher education

Home → Awards → Award Recipients

Award

Australian Awards for University Teaching — 2011

Citation for Outstanding Contributions to Student Learning

Associate Professor Claudia Diaz
James Cook University, Queensland

Citation Wording

For stimulating multidisciplinary first year students to learn Anatomy via innovative, pro-active approaches to improve engagement and learning outcomes.

Synopsis

Associate Professor Diaz has developed a revolutionary approach to the teaching of Anatomy by implementing innovative, multi-sensory approaches to improve engagement and learning outcomes for first year students. These approaches have increased student engagement and motivation in the Anatomy course and led to a higher level of deep Anatomy knowledge and student grades.

More like this

- Ms Kristen Harrison — Citation for Outstanding Contributions to Student Learning — Recipient — 2006 — William Warren
- Ms Kristen Harrison — Citation for Outstanding Contributions to Student Learning — Recipient — 2006 — Tarum Gupta
- Citation for Outstanding Contributions to Student Learning — Recipient — 2010 — 4316
- Dr Suzanne Munns — Citation for Outstanding Contributions to Student Learning — Recipient — 2009 — Suzanne Munns
- Citation for Outstanding Contributions to Student Learning — Recipient — 2010 — 4332